Business and Western were disappointed earlier in the week in getting on the floor, but will come in today and tomorrow for workouts in getting ready for their clash next week when the Interscholastic Basketball League resumes its games at the Arcade. Western goes to E. Baltz. Alexandria today, while Business 1 plays the Georgetown Preps on the Hilltop tomorrow night. One of the best schoolboy games of the season is expected today when tionzaga and the Georgetown Preps hook up in the North Capitol street gym.

Gonzaga won the first clash in the Jesuit title clash, and the Preps are more than anxious for an even break today.
A victory over the strong Friends team on Wednesday argues well for the success of the Preps today.

According to the agreement $20,000 is to be deposited with Bob Vernon, of this city, the official stakeholder, Wednesday, February 2, and the remaining $25,000 is to be paid to Willard twenty-four hours before the fight takes place. Rickard and McCracken plan to place the price of seats for the bout at from $5 to $25.

The articles provide that a referee must be agreed upon four days before the bout. It will be staged under the supervision of the State athletic commission, and it is likely that the commission will name the official to referee the bout.

Rickard believes that the bout will be the biggest drawing card in local boxing circles for many years, as Willard has not entered a ring since he won the title from ack Johnson at Havana last.
